

Static Roots Festival 2025: A Celebration of Community, Music, and Giving Back

Oberhausen, Germany – February 26, 2025 – The Static Roots Festival, Germany's premier Americana and roots music festival, is celebrating a remarkable year in 2025. The festival has not only sold out in record time but also expanded to a larger venue to accommodate its growing community and continues to garner rave reviews from artists, journalists, and fans alike.

A Festival That Feeds the Soul

Since its inception in 2016, Static Roots Festival has been dedicated to showcasing the best of Americana, folk, and roots music, creating an intimate and welcoming atmosphere where music lovers can connect and share their passion. The festival's commitment to quality and community, coupled with its dedication to supporting important causes, has resonated deeply with audiences.

Record-Breaking Sell-Out and Venue Expansion

The 2025 edition of Static Roots Festival sold out its initial batch of tickets in a mere four weeks, a significant increase from the five months it took to sell out in 2024. This unprecedented demand prompted organizers to secure a larger space within the Zentrum Altenberg, increasing the festival's capacity from 300 to 450.

This expansion has allowed for the release of additional weekend tickets, as well as the introduction of day tickets for both Friday and Saturday, ensuring even more fans can experience the magic of Static Roots.

Critical Acclaim and Artist Testimonials

Static Roots Festival has consistently garnered praise from artists, journalists, and fans alike. Here are just a few examples of the glowing reviews from 2024:

- "I haven't played too many festivals, but I've never played one with the communal glory as Static Roots. The band and I felt as if we were being welcomed into a well-worn family." - David Newbould, Static Roots Festival 2024 performer

- "The best 'little' festival in Europe came up trumps once more." - Declan Culliton, lonesomehighway.com
- "Static Roots is a brilliantly curated Americana festival" - Patrick Fuchs, Festival Director, Bühler Bluegrass Festival
- "Could it be that it really exists - the utopian dream world where everything is simply better and more beautiful than in everyday grey life?" - Ullrich Maurer, music journalist

Supporting Important Causes: Giving Back to the World

As we head into our 9th year, Static Roots Festival is proud to have donated over 23,000 EUR to Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders). All revenues from the sale of festival merchandise are donated directly to this worthy cause, reflecting the festival's belief in using its platform to support important humanitarian causes.

An Eclectic Lineup for 2025

The 2025 Static Roots Festival lineup is packed with talent, featuring a diverse range of artists from across the globe, including:

Bywater Call (Canada)

Embla & The Karidotters (Norway)

The Southern Fold (Ireland)
